THE CONFERENCE

The CADMD conference series started in Warsaw in 1994 and has been organized yearly in Poland and Ukraine.

This year we would like to continue the tradition and invite you to one of the most attractive cities in Ukraine - Lviv.

PAPERS AND PRESENTATION

The working languages of the conference are English, Polish and Ukrainian.

Submitted papers (in English) have to be original, containing new and original results. The material must be unpublished and not under submission elsewhere.

Prospective authors are invited to submit a full paper to the Organizing Committee electronically in MS WordDoc or Rich Text Format through the conference Website. The required format is available on the Conference Web page. Authors are asked to indicate the topic into which their papers fall.

Contributions may be submitted in two formats: regular papers (6-8 pages, including figures and tables) and short papers (1-2 pages). It is hoped that active research groups will submit one regular paper as well as short papers on other projects that are not covered by their regular submission. Preferably, papers should be written in MS Word using the template file accessible through the conference Website.

Each paper will be evaluated by reviewers (members of Programme Committee). Their remarks and suggestions will be sent back to authors by e-mail in order to facilitate timely preparation of revised papers. We think that it will be a good way to prepare a perfectly final version of papers.

There are two types of presentation: regular session - 15 min and poster session. It is very important to prepare a good presentation (MS Power Point, transparencies) or poster.

MAIN TOPICS OF REGULAR SESSIONS

- Identification, Modeling and Simulation of Processes and Systems;
- Robotics and Automation;
- Microelectromechanical Systems – resonators, micro-optical devices, micro-fluid devices, MEMS integrated implementations;
